

As of December 1, 2009, the Cascades Advisory Group team has joined VonLehman & Company, Inc. This partnership leverages our proven strategy, operations, financial and real estate services and combines it with VonLehman's trusted accounting, tax and technology capabilities. VonLehman's forward thinking culture, coupled with their scale as the sixth largest accounting firm in the tri-state, enhances our ability to bring innovative solutions to solve clients' most difficult problems.

Robert Sinkhorn will lead the consulting team at VonLehman with the support of Joe Mumper and other consulting professionals. Richard Palmer has recently become President of Nehemiah Manufacturing Company. Richard will continue working closely with Robert, Joe and the VonLehman team to serve existing clients and support future projects.
